RAG & BONE CELEBRATES PRIDE WITH ARTIST COLLAB

BY STEPHEN GARNER

JUN 04, 2019

Rag & Bone is celebrating Pride month with a new t-shirt collaboration, featuring original, graphic designs by artist Jason Naylor.

The two t-shirt designs will be sold exclusively at key Rag & Bone stores with 20 percent of the proceeds to benefit the Trevor Project, one of the leading national non-profit organizations providing crisis intervention and suicide prevention services to the LGBTQ youth.

Made with Pima cotton sourced in Peru, the t-shirts feature Naylor's signature graphic motifs with playful riffs on individuality and togetherness. To further amplify the launch of the t-shirts during Pride month, Rag & Bone will host events at its stores in Los Angeles, Philadelphia, Georgetown, Boston, New York, Chicago, San Francisco and London. Naylor's work will be featured in the store windows for each event.

L'OFFICIEL ART

The Coach Logo, as Reimagined by NYC Graffiti Artists

The American brand has partnered up with New York's most prominent graffiti writers to reimagine the Coach logo on walls and murals all over the city.

02.27.2018 by Dhika Himawan

Logomania is back, and while most brands are taking the trend to clothing and accessories, Coach has taken it to the streets of New York. A total of 13 murals and walls throughout the five boroughs of New York has been redecorated with each artist's take on the Coach signature logo. The collaboration features WhisBe, DAIN, SUCH, Crash, The DriF, and more graffiti legends. Take a look at their work and where to find them below:
